What to Expect

EPS EXPO is the only educational and networking forum developed exclusively for the EPS industry. It's where all facets of the EPS industry hear experts present what's new and cutting edge in EPS shape and block molding while meeting and networking with fellow associates from around the world. EPS EXPO 2017 will feature quality presentations and information on key market applications, business dynamics and regulatory developments. Recommended attire is business casual.

About EPS-IA

The EPS Industry Alliance was forged on January 1, 2012 by merging the EPS Molders Association and the Alliance of Foam Packaging Recyclers. With more than 20 years of experience, knowledge and expertise, EPS-IA is the most respected organization for the EPS industry in North America. EPS-IA is a focal point for the industry, providing leadership on all major strategic issues affecting EPS products.
